Dear Parents and Carers

School Opening

As many of you will know, a controlled explosion of an unexploded World War 2 bomb took place on Saturday 27/02/2021. It appears that the scale of the explosion was larger than anticipated, with a cordoned area extended to include Avanti Hall School. Over the weekend the school has been in discussions with Devon County Council to confirm if our site will be safe and accessible by Monday 01/03/2021.

We can now confirm that the school will be open as normal on Monday 01/03/2021 for all vulnerable students and keyworkers pupils. Online teaching will continue through Google Meets.

This has been a very dynamic and fast-moving situation and I apologise for not being able to communicate with you before now. Thank you in advance for your understanding and communication with us.

Best wishes

Phil Arnold
Principal,
Avanti Hall School
