Dear parents and carers,

Re – Science GCSE

Your children have shown fantastic resilience in their learning. Like many young people approaching their GCSEs this year, they have faced much disruption, but unlike their Year 11 peers in other schools, your children have had further changes as the school moved from the Steiner Academy through to Avanti Hall. We have worked hard to ensure that your children have had consistency and we have recruited strong teachers to key subjects that will allow your children to build their confidence as they move through the final months of their time at the school.

We have recruited a new and experienced Subject Leader for science, however I feel that this further change in teacher would not be beneficial for our class of 2022, despite the experience our new colleague brings. We have therefore spoken with Hannah Cockburn who will come back to teach Year 11, as we feel that her experience and knowledge of the group will best prepare them for the final stages of the GCSE and support the final elements of study. Maple class will be informed of this today too.

Thank you for your patience and support regarding this process.

Best wishes

Phil Arnold
