Section D

Use the information in the text to explain why we should always remember Mary Seacole. The following is an example only.

Mary Seacole was a very caring and kind person. She helped sick and injured soldiers during the Crimean War by giving them food and water, clothes and blankets and caring for them. She even opened The British Hotel to look after those in need. She achieved so much and did some incredible work and we should never forget how much she helped Britain during those difficult times. She was a remarkable lady and deserves to be remembered for her selfless acts.

Whole Class Guided Reading – Teaching Guide

- The text is for the children to read. Give each pair a copy of the text (without questions) to read individually or as a whole class. This text has been aimed at Year 2 (Wales)/Primary 3 (Scotland)/Grade 1 (Australia).
- The teacher should use the teacher version. It shows you where to pause after each section and provides questions for you to ask. The colours refer to our levels so that you can direct specific questions at specific students in terms of difficulty (their version does not have these colours to show them which is which). The questions are also numbered in the order they appear on the comprehension sheet.
 - Beginner – (Red)
 - Easy – (Blue)
 - Tricky – (Orange)
 - Expert – (Green)
- The children can record their answers to the questions at the end of the shared read/discussion or in a different session by using the comprehension sheet. The questions have been re-grouped into abilities so that you can assign sections to specific children.
 - Section A – Beginner
 - Section B – Easy
 - Section C – Tricky
 - Section D – Expert
