- Finally you will listen to the teacher read and the child will use their imagination to think about the creature.

Worm, Slug, Maggot and Leech

by Polly Walker

Worm, Slug, Maggot and Leech lived in Minibeast land. They loved to wriggle, jiggle and make lots of lovely sticky slime. They played all day in the mud and grass, but they just weren't happy.

Each one disliked something about how they looked. One was too plain, one was too ugly, one was too round, and one was too pink! They tried to work out how to change their looks and so they thought and thought.

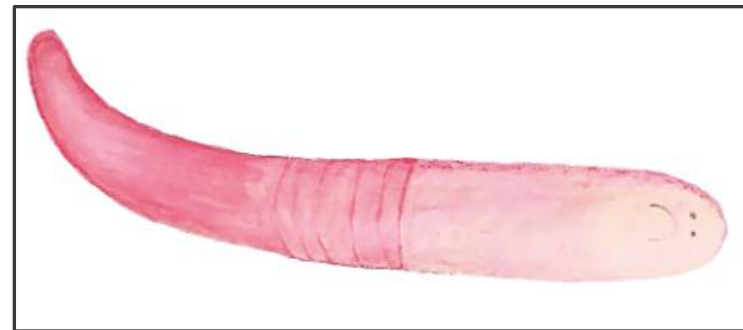

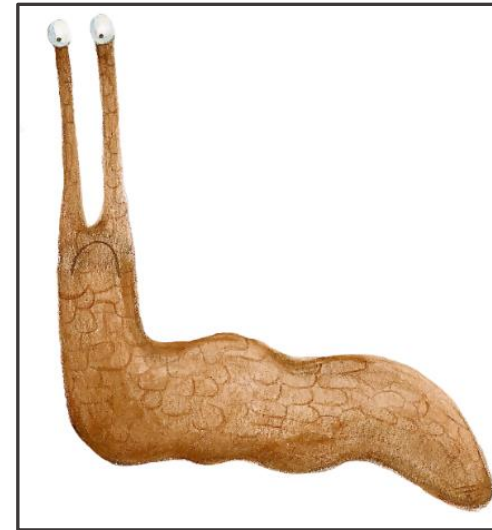

Worm, Slug, Maggot and Leech

by Polly Walker

The minibeasts were so jealous of the other beautiful minibeasts that they wished to change. They called for a magic witch or a wise old man to help them.

They wished and they wished and they wished.

Suddenly, out of the blue, a magical creature appeared! She was happy and wanted to help. She asked the friends what they wanted her to do.

They told her about the pretty dragonflies, the delicate butterflies, and the red, shiny beetles in the wood where they lived. They wanted to be just like them.
