

Veer 2FF has been learning about plants. He placed a leaf in water for a few hours and observed the bubbles rising from the surface of the leaf. This showed that the leaf is releasing oxygen while making food and that oxygen is seen as bubbles in the water

