

Different Beliefs

www.twinkl.co.uk

People have many different beliefs and gods that they worship. We wear lots of different clothes and pray in different ways in different places but everyone is special!

Some Christian children like to wear a cross and chain.

Some Jewish children like to wear a Magen David (star of David).

Some Jewish boys wear a Kippah.

Some Sikh boys like to have their hair short. Some Sikh boys wear a Romala over their hair.

Some Muslim Boys like to wear a Topi on their head.

Some Buddhist boys like to have their head shaven.

Sometimes you can see things in different religions which are quite similar to others.

A Christian girl may wear a headdress to their first communion which covers their hair. A Muslim girl may wear a Hijab which covers their hair also.

Some Sikh girls
wear Shalwar Kameez.

Some Hindu girls
wear a Sari.

◀ In a Hindu home, a girl will help her mother set up the family shrine each morning.

► In a Sikh home, children will say prayers in the mornings and evenings.

▲ In a Christian home, some children will say prayers before they go to bed.

◀ In a Buddhist home, everyone will meditate in silence.

▶ In a Jewish home, a family meal is eaten every Friday evening and the Father blesses his children.

▲ In a Muslim home, the Father will lead the family prayers every morning and evening.

Be lovely to everyone, no matter what they believe in.
