HOUSE CAPTAINCY

THE INFORMATION

Person Specification:

This role requires:

- Commitment to the role
- Good communication skills
- Creativity
- A positive attitude and being a role model to other pupils
- Working with and supporting staff to help run House competitions

Job Description:

To be a successful House Vice Captain you need to be resilient, responsible and ready to face any challenge that you may be given. It also requires you to be able to manage your time well and be prepared to help with things you usually might not, but most importantly you must be able to have fun while doing it all!

Being House Vice Captain opens so many doors for you in the future as it shows that you are a team player and work well with others. The role of House Vice Captain requires you to be proud to be an Avanti student, committed to the school and the events that take place.

Confidence and dedication are two key characteristics of a good House Vice Captain as you may have to speak to a large audience. One important aspect of the role is being able to speak your mind, respectfully and politely, about things going on in the school; your opinions are important.

Good luck with your application.

QUESTIONS:

If you have any questions regarding the HOUSE/VICE HOUSE CAPTAINCY programme, please speak to your child's class teacher.
