

Focus on... Design Technology

#36

On this day in...

1868, American inventor, Christopher Latham Sholes patented his second typewriter which wrote at a speed far exceeding that of a pen.

Did you know...

Timber is a wood or a tree grown specifically for carpentry and construction. It is carbon-negative so it is eco-friendly. Over 70% of the world's population lives in timber housing.

Go explore...

What is the most stolen food in the world which also has a black market?

Picture this...

Ebony is the blackest wood in the world.

Holly is the whitest wood in the world.
