

Focus on... Art

#95

On this day in...

1957, Diego Rivera died. He is known as the greatest Mexican painter and he has a profound effect on the international art world.

Did you know...

The word yellow comes from the Old English word geolu and in Japan, yellow is the colour of courage. Yellow is also said to be an appropriate colour for a room used for studying because it has a stimulating effect on the mind.

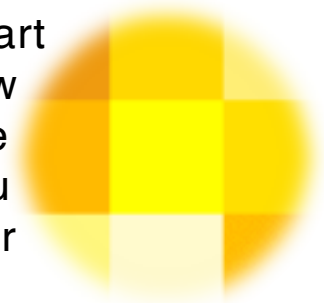

Go explore...

Name the two colours that you mix together to create yellow.

Have a go...

Create a piece of art using the colour yellow only. Think about the variety of tones you could use to make your art work look great.
