Focus on… Remembrance

#S2

On this day in…

1919, Remembrance Day was first observed and was called 'Armistice Day'. It was to remember the agreement that ended the First World War on 11th day of the 11th month (11th November, 1918) at 11am.

Did you know…

Remembrance Day is not just for remembering those who died in the First World War but all other wars since, such as World War Two, The Falklands War, The Gulf War and the conflicts in Afghanistan and Iraq.

Lest we forget…

Time to reflect…

Why do you think a two minute silence is held at 11am on Remembrance Day each year?

Picture this…

The poppy is used as the symbol of remembrance as this is the flower that grew across the battlefields after the First World War had ended.

Click to Play the Podcast

To see more from our 'Focus on…' series, visit http://avanti.org.uk/kapsleicester/focus-on/