

Focus on... Art

#121

On this day...

In 1887 James Dickinson Innes was born, he was a British painter who focussed largely on landscapes and mountains.

Did you know...

Watercolour paint is, as it sounds, a water-soluble paint. In modern times, it is made with gum Arabic and a pigment, which can be man-made or natural.

Go explore...

What is Gum Arabic, and how is it used in painting?

Have a go...

Can you have a go at making your own set of watercolours? See below for some help, you could even replace the food colouring with fruit paste to create your desired colour!
