

Focus on... Spanish

#133

On this day in...

1980 Juan Carlos Ferrero Donat [xwan 'karlos fe'rero ðo 'nat] was born. A Spanish former World No.1 tennis player. He won the men's singles title at the 2003 French Open and in September of that year, became the 21st player to hold the World No.1 ranking.

Did you know...

Madrid is not only the capital of Spain, it is also the geographical centre of the country. In the centre of Madrid you can find the Puerto del Sol (The Sun Gate) which is the centre of the country and the Spanish radial road system.

Go explore...

The highest Spanish mountain is not in Spain. Can you find out its name and location?

Do you know why there are beaches with black sand instead of white?

Picture this...

We have chocolate thanks to the Spanish.
