

Focus on... History

#205

On this day...

in 1947, Anne Frank's diary was first published under the title 'Het Achterhuis' meaning 'The Secret Annex'. Her diary showed first hand experience of what it was like to be a Jewish Dutch citizen during the Second World War.

Did you know...

The city of Leicester has been occupied for over 2,000 years. It was originally an Iron Age settlement near the River Soar. It did not get the name of Leicester until around the 9th century.

Go explore...

This year the modern Summer Olympic Games will be held in Tokyo, Japan. Watch the video below to find out how the Olympic Games first began.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/z87tn39/articles/z36j7ty>

Picture this...

In 1974 in the Shaanxi province of China, peasants stumbled across fragments of clay figures when digging a well. Archeologists took over the dig and discovered an entire army of terracotta figures created to protect the tomb of Emperor Qin Shi Huangdi.

Click to play The Krishna Avanti Podcast

To see more from our 'Focus on...' series, visit <http://avanti.org.uk/kapsleicester/focus-on/>