

Focus on... Science

#308

On this day...

in 1913, Georgia Broadwick, age 18, was the first woman to make a successful parachute jump from an aeroplane. She jumped from the aeroplane flying at about 30 miles per hour (mph) at an altitude of 1000 feet over Los Angeles, California.

Did you know...

In an entire lifetime, the average person walks the equivalent of five times around the world.

Go explore...

Why do we dream?

Picture this...

What if we didn't use cars anymore?
