

get everyday. I also loved that each story had a moral.

It would be helpful if in future you could bring some examples of the finished product (mask) so that we have an idea of what to aim for. Once again, thank you so much for giving us such a rich experience which I will remember for the lifetime. Hope to see you again.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr Kwami,

I wish to express my sincere thanks for giving us a wonderful experience on Monday 4th November. I am grateful to you for sharing the amazing stories with us and giving us an ecstatic singing and dancing time.

You literally took us on an adventurous journey to Africa during the assembly and the workshop. You have convinced me enough that I will have lots of fun if I go on a holiday to any African country.

The drumming session was splendid because you taught us parts of a drum and different beats. We played like a real African drummer! I understood that music is a form of communication and is an integral part of Africa.

The recycling workshop was creative and imaginative. You taught us how to make the 'best out of waste'. This was the first time I used the technique of paper maché. The idea of making an African mask from a milk bottle (recycled) is very clever. You clearly demonstrated that you are an expert!

My favourite part of the day was the story telling. It was fun to listen to the stories from a different country. This kind of experience isn't something we
