

During PSHE lessons, year 2 have been learning about the importance of respecting ourselves and respecting others around us, at school and at home.

The children acted out different situations and explained whether they showed respect or not.

