

Rubbish!

The world is full of rubbish,
We find it all around,
Strewn and scattered along the path,
Thrown across the ground.

It hangs on outstretched trees and branches,
Like washing on a line.
Dumped into the oceans,
Oh, it's the biggest crime!

You will find it in the sewers,
Amassed and gathered by the trees,
It wraps around the hedges,
Carried by the breeze.

I think the time has come,
To take my final bow.
Terminate this nonsense,
Stop it - end it, NOW!
