Accept any sentence with an embedded relative clause, e.g. Bobsleigh, which is an event held during the Winter Olympics, is a fast-paced and potentially dangerous sport. If the sentence uses the relative pronoun 'which' then it needs commas around the extra clause. If it uses 'that' then no commas are required.

Can you think of the -able suffix word to match these definitions?

Worth lots of money      valuable

Always there when you need them      reliable
