

Dear parents, carers,

We are very pleased to share with you, our spring term edition of The Buzz. This is a newspaper where our talented year 6 pupils come together and expand their editorial skills as well as their journalistic skills and not to mention writing for a particular audience.

Please do take time to read the new and improved version, by clicking on the link below.

On behalf of our pupil editorial team, we wish you a wonderful break ahead and look forward to welcoming you all back on Monday 17th April 2023!
